

TEMPORARY PET HOUSING/FOSTER CARE

There are plenty of reasons why you may need to find a temporary home for your pet! We hope to help you find temporary pet housing that will meet your needs.

FOSTERING OPTIONS

Rover - <https://www.rover.com/>

- » They offer options for grooming, drop-in visits, doggy day care, dog walking, house sitting, and boarding.

911 FosterPets - <https://911fosterpets.com/>

- » “Our mission is to help save pets by seamlessly connecting animal shelters, rescue groups, and individual pet owners with local homes willing to foster a pet in need.”

The Goochy Project - <https://sites.google.com/view/the-goochy-project/home>

- » “The Goochy Project is a nonprofit organization with a mission to support under-resourced pet owners in Seattle by providing free, time-limited, pet care and boarding when owners need to attend to important issues that require temporary separation from their furry family members.”

SPOT (Supporting Pet Owners in Transition) -

<https://www.seattlehumane.org/services/community-outreach/support/>

- » “The SPOT program uses Seattle Humane’s existing foster network to house pets for owners who need temporary care due to housing insecurity, hospitalization or other personal crisis.”

Whether being relocated within the United States or anywhere in the world, SPCA International’s Operation Military Pets is here to keep pets with the ones they love.”

FOSTER RESOURCES:

Beck's Place - <https://www.becksplace.org/fosterboarding>

- » “Our foster boarding program seeks to remove those barriers so you don't have to choose between you or your pet... This program is available to low-income residents of Snohomish County.”
- » Phone (call or text): (425) 419-8992

Seattle Dogs - <https://seattledogs.info/forms>

- » “Our mission is to help the dog which in turns helps the owner. We make no assumptions that the dog is needing a home. Working with the homeless community we believe that an actual roof does not mean a better life but we hope to help make this a reality for both owner and dog by providing a valuable resource, boarding.”
- » Phone: (206) 519-1697

RedRover Relief - <https://redrover.org/relief/emergency-boarding-grants/>

- » The RedRover Relief Emergency Boarding grant program helps animals who need temporary boarding while their owners are ill due to the COVID-19 virus.

RedRover Relief DV - <https://redrover.org/relief-dv/dv-safe-escape-grants/>

- » The RedRover Relief Safe Escape grant program helps families with pets safely escape domestic violence together. Funding is mainly provided to help with the cost of temporary pet boarding while a client is in a domestic violence shelter, though other costs associated with boarding (like vaccinations) can be considered. Assistance does not typically cover pet boarding once the client has moved from the safe house into transitional housing.

DEPLOYMENT

Dogs on Deployment - <https://www.dogsondeployment.org/>

- » “Our mission is to give America's Heroes peace of mind concerning their pets during their service commitments by providing them with the ability to find people and resources able to help them.”

PACT for Animals - <https://pactforanimals.org/>

- » “If you are temporarily unable to care for your pet, due to medical or military related reasons, we're here to help.”

Guardian Angels for Soldier's Pet - <https://gafsp.org/>
